

MAUI WOMEN WILL PUSH SUFFRAGE ISSUE

The keen interest in woman's suffrage on Maui was attested by the attendance at the annual meeting of the Maui woman's suffrage association, last Saturday afternoon, when 34 women from all parts of Maui assembled at the Kahului community house, in spite of the steady kona downpour of rain. Since the organization of the association last spring, a number of the clubs in various parts of Maui have shown considerable activity and indications are that Maui will show a very determined front to the territorial legislature when it meets in special session next April or May.

It is now the aim of the suffragettes to press for the voting privilege for the next fall elections.

Mrs. Harry A. Baldwin, who was re-elected its president of the association at Saturday's meeting, has retained from the mainland with a renewed spirit of enthusiasm for the movement.

She is anxious that the organization shall lose no time in getting the women of the county educated in the duties of a voter before the franchise is actually secured, either from the legislature or through the ratification of the constitutional amendment, which is now apparently but a matter of months.

Officers Elected
At Saturday's meeting the following officers were elected:

Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, president; vice-presidents are: Mrs. Makawao, Mrs. A. C. Bowditch, Wailuku, Mrs. H. B. Penhallow, Lahaina, Mrs. D. T. Fleming, Hana, Mrs. George Lake, Molokai, Mrs. James Munroe.

Mrs. Myrtle Hansen, secretary; Mrs. H. B. Sloggett, treasurer.

Executive Committee—Lahaina, Mrs. John Rose, Mrs. John Gannon, Mrs. A. W. Collins; Wailuku, Mrs. Becky Williamson, Mrs. James Pantom, Mrs. Frank Hoops, Mrs. Joaquin Garcia; Makawao, Mrs. Henry Robinson, Mrs. F. G. Krauss, Mrs. Dora von Tempel, Mrs. Lizzie Machado; Molokai, Mrs. Joel Nakaleka; Hana, Mrs. John Chalmers.

Lahaina Club Tomorrow
A big meeting of the Lahaina Club is to be held tomorrow afternoon (Saturday) at 3 o'clock, at the Pioneer Theater, Lahaina. The Lahaina club has been perhaps one of the most active of any of the Maui suffrage clubs, and the meeting tomorrow is expected to outline an aggressive campaign for the next few months.

On Thursday of this week the women of Makawao district, including Pauwela, Hailu, Hamakua, Paila, Makawao and the Spreckelsville organized a branch club, the meeting being held in the Paila Orpheum.

The Keane club is to meet again shortly and indications point to increased activity in this district. Keane, although isolated is reported to have one of the best clubs in the county.

Inspiring Addresses
At last Saturday's meeting Rev. H. V. Aylmer, of Kahului delivered a most interesting and inspiring address to the women on the subject of "The Place of Woman in Public Life." This was followed by a short but instructive address by Vaughan MacCaushey, superintendent of public instruction, on "Educational Needs."

Fourteen new members signed the roll, making the total membership 120.

President's Report
An inspiring feature of the big meeting was the report of the President, Mrs. Baldwin, covering the work of the year and the outlook for the future. It was as follows:

"On May 31, 1919 the Maui Woman's Suffrage Association was organized, the aim of which was the formation of an influential, non-partisan, non-sectarian association, with a view to securing equal and full political rights to the women of Hawaii."

"A constitution was adopted and officers elected."

"One hundred and six women signed the roll and thus became charter members."

"The following officers were elected—Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, president."

"The vice-president from each large voting district—Makawao, Mrs. A. C. Bowditch; Wailuku, Mrs. H. B. Penhallow; Lahaina, Mrs. D. T. Fleming; Hana, Mrs. Robert Plunkett; Molokai, Mrs. James Munroe."

"Mrs. David Wadsworth, secretary; Mrs. H. D. Sloggett, treasurer."

"Executive committee—Lahaina, Mrs. John Rose, Mrs. John Gannon, Mrs. A. W. Collins; Wailuku, Mrs. Becky Williamson, Mrs. James Pantom, Mrs. Frank Hoops, Mrs. Joaquin Garcia; Makawao, Mrs. Henry Robinson, Mrs. F. G. Krauss, Mrs. Dora von Tempel, Mrs. Lizzie Machado; Molokai, Mrs. Joel Nakaleka; Hana, Mrs. John Chalmers."

husband should arouse interest in the care of such cases—the feeding of undernourished children, the care and treatment of wayward and feeble-minded children. Healthy, normal children make healthy normal men and women and therefore good citizens. We should use our influence in the breaking down of laws which keep women who do the same work, from getting the same wages as men—Equal pay for equal work should be one of our slogans."

"As soon as we are able to procure satisfactory material, under the supervision of the educational committee, we should start study classes in the different clubs."

"In closing I wish to say that I feel that the women of Hawaii are coming into their own. We have all been aroused to a sense of our ability to organize and work together during the years of the war, and we are now ready and anxious to take up other activities and our rightful place in the government of our country."

ETHEL S. BALDWIN,
"Pres. Woman's Suffrage Association."

The Ladies Aid Society of the Paila Hawaiian church asked the president of this club to speak on June 25 to the women of their society on the subject of suffrage, explaining the idea and the aims of the club. Indications are that a branch club will be formed at Paila at an early date.

On November 25 a meeting of the executive committee was called to find out what was being done in the different districts and to discuss the general line of work. The minutes of this meeting will be read later.

"On December 7 a suffrage club was formed in Keane with Mrs. D. W. Napiha as president; Mrs. Hazel Kaka vice-president; Mrs. John Plunkett, secretary; Mrs. Alice Nallima, treasurer. Also the following executive committee; Mrs. John Hamala, Mrs. Alesang Ah Yet, Mrs. Baker Kalamoe, Mrs. David Koa, and Mrs. David Aikala."

"On January 10 a club was formed in Lahaina and the following officer elected—President, Mrs. John Rose; vice-president from Honolulu, Mrs. Katherine Cockett; vice-president Pukohi, Mrs. Wm. K. Buchanan; vice-president Honolulu, Mrs. Poolina."

"Secretary and treasurer—Mrs. A. D. Furtado."

"The women of Hana are showing interest and will probably form a small club."

"There are now 14,700,473 women in the United States. If the 36 states ratify the national suffrage amendment before November, 1920, as now seems likely, there will be more than 20 million."

Everyone realizes the strength of the woman's vote in the states, and realize that the party that will win out at election time, is the one that offers the most sincere and appealing issue to the minds and hearts of the women. The question 'What shall women do for the political party?' will be 'What shall the political party do for the women?'

"The solution of some of the problems will be women's business as well as men's and we should be giving careful thought to them."

"The high cost of living is bound to come up in national platforms. Since the women buy 90% nearly of the food consumed, we should help toward solving the problem if possible."

"One of our objects should be community welfare. The death rate of tiny infants and their mothers on the

Molokai Musings

(By Maui News Correspondent)

PUKOO, Jan. 15.—Worth O. Aiken expects to pay Molokai a visit shortly remaining here for a week or so as the guest of Rex Hitchcock.

E. K. Duvauchelle and family were called over to Lahaina by wireless on the 14th, to attend the funeral of R. Duvauchelle, a brother whose sudden death took place on that day at Kaunapali. They went by sampan and will return on the 16th.

Mr. Kalaau's new song, "I Love You Molokai," was sung at Halawa by a well trained choir last week.

Rev. Lae, of the native church at Kalaupapa, has resigned his pastorate and will apply for the judgeship. Mr. Lae is qualified to practice in the district courts.

Awaiting the appointment of a district magistrate for leeward Molokai, Rex Hitchcock has been acting as deputy sheriff, prosecuting attorney and judge for the past few weeks. So far as the judgeship is concerned, this has been a long suffering community.

Miss Carrie Dunn returned to her school at Lahaina last week.

There has been an epidemic of spinal meningitis among the males at Kalaupapa and Kaunakakai. Nine have died. The disease is now abating.

The appropriation of $100 a month by the county supervisors for a district nurse has pleased the residents of leeward Molokai very much. House, board and an auto will be provided for her by private contribution.

Though wise and careful in its grants for county needs, the present supervisors have been generous to Molokai, both as to roads and the medical care of the people. During the past year there has been an unusual amount of sickness and accident emergencies and a district nurse will be a great help, not only to the doctor, but his patients.

Dr. W. J. Goodhue, of Kalaupapa, expects to visit Honolulu shortly for a week or so. His brother will hold down the lid at the Settlement during the doctor's absence.

Angus McPhee, of Maui, is on the island buying cattle for his Kahoolawe Ranch.

Molokai has been granted a larger appropriation than usual for roads to meet the extra demands for repair of bridges and damage done by freshets.

A lot of random shooting with rifles has been going on in the vicinity of Ualapue and Kalaupapa. A stray bullet hit one of the houses of a resident and others have been heard whistling by. Two or three boys, one with a 22 Winchester, are doing the shooting.

A much-needed new policeman, John Kekoa, has been appointed at Kamalo. He seems to be doing good work.

Several citizens of Pukoo, Kalaupapa, Kamalo and Kaunakakai celebrated Christmas in joyous drunkenness. Where do they get the stuff? Echo—where?

Off and on, the Conants and Stericks of Kaunakakai, and the Goodhues of Ualapue, spent their Christmas and New Year holidays at Kaula and Kaulapuu with the Cookes and Munros.

At Kaunakakai were baseball games between Kaunakakai and Lahaina, a luau and concert. At Kaula a private concert and dinner, at Kaulapuu luau and amusements.

Residents say that Molokai has not been so lively for many a year.

Mr. Luning has leased the fish pond at Ahaihu.

With the New Year begins an era of good will and kindness on Molokai which promises well for the future happiness and comfort of the residents. Prior to this were many feuds and quarrels, always a disturbing factor in community affairs. The county is responding generously to the needs of Molokai, so is the police department. Good roads are coming on. Bridges and wharves are being repaired. The mail and freight problem looks brighter. Only the judgeship snags.
